

Gran Reserva was awarded with Gold Medal in the 7th Wines of Chile Awards

We are very proud to announce that we had an outstanding participation in this Chilean contest, which is acquiring more international recognition year after year. In this occasion the objectives were to position and communicate the high quality of the Chilean wines in Canada. That's why Wines of Chile Association, organized the 7th version of the "Annual Wines of Chile Awards" with the participation of famous Canadian wine experts as judges. Among them we can stand out Tony Aspler, journalist of Wine Spectator Magazine and David Lawrason, wine journalist for the Toronto Life and Editor of Wine. In this year's version, 111 wineries and 467 wines participated.

Vistamar Gran Reserva Cabernet Sauvignon / Syrah 2006

A few words from our Wine-Making Director, Irene Paiva:

In this vintage, our top of the range wine is compound by 80% of Cabernet Sauvignon from Maipo Valley and 20% of Syrah from Maule Valley. Our Winemaker Director, Irene Paiva, says that this wine represents all our potential and experience. Each stage, from the selection of the grape, management of the vineyard, vinification techniques and ageing in different types of cask, has been worked out carefully and accurately in order to achieve quality of a high level, with unique identity and personality.
